

please support portability of cellular telephone numbers. it will force the providers to provide better service. i have had considerable problems with my provider (verizon) and i would switch if i could take my number with me. i truly believe veriozon does not care about customer service. just try to deal with billing errors when they appear.